About the pictures on the reverse side:

The two larger pictures, center-top, are of Thomas Moulton and his second wife, Sarah Denton. Thomas had married Esther Marsh in England, by her had two children--Susan and Sarah. The daughter Susan and the wife, Esther, both died and were buried in England. After the death of Esther Marsh, Thomas married Sarah Denton; and she was the mother of the rest of the children.

Prior to their coming to the United States, the family lived in Irchester, Northampton, England.

Little Susan, daughter of Thomas and Esther, was 15 months when she died. About a year later, Sarah was born. She was nearly two when her mother died. A year later, Thomas married Sarah Denton.

Mary Ann, William Denton, Joseph, James Heber, Charlotte and Sophia Elizabeth were all born in Irchester, Northampton, England.

So, when they left England, the family consisted of the father, Thomas Moulton, his wife, Sarah Denton, the young half-sisters, in their teens--Sarah and Mary Ann--followed by three sons--William Denton, Joseph and James Heber--and finally two very small girls--Charlotte and Sophia Elizabeth

Charles Alma was born at sea.

After their arrival in Utah, the family spent a short time in Provo. Here, Thomas Denton was born and died.

In the spring of 1860, the family moved to Heber City, Wasatch County, Utah. That fall, John Ephraim was born.

George Franklin, the youngest, was born in Heber in 1863.

So far as we can find, there is no picture of Susan, Esther Marsh, Mary Ann, or Thomas Denton. We feel particularly bad about the Esther Marsh and the Mary Ann pictures--as they both have a large progeny. If any of you have such a picture, we would be most grateful to have the privilege of publishing it to the family.

Previously we published to the family the group sheet of Thomas Moulton and Esther Marsh. This shows a sealing date for Esther Marsh, Thomas Moulton and the two children. Verda Hicken found errors in this. Verda, Paul Martin and Heber and Henry Moulton discussed this and agreed to the results below. We quote from Verda Hicken's letter written at Logan, Utah on Easter morning, 1966:

> "Dear Heber:
>
> "Susan and Sarah Moulton were sealed to Sarah Denton 20 Mar. 1885 LG (see Sealings to Parents, Book A, p. 170).
>
> "We corrected this and sealed them to their mother, Esther Marsh, on 9 Oct. 1965, Logan Temple. We also sealed Esther Marsh to her husband, Thomas Moulton, on 9 Oct. 1965 LG.
>
> "Esther was endowed 18 Mar. 1885 (Endowments for the Dead, Book A, p. 396, 18 Mar. 1885, Logan Temple). There was no record of her sealing to Thomas Moulton in these early books in the archive."
